SAN ANGELO DOG FEATURED ON TEXAS LOTTERY SCRATCH TICKET

New $2 scratch ticket now available at Texas Lottery retailers

(AUSTIN) – Booker Tee, an American bulldog, owned by Walker Woolman of San Angelo, is one of six dogs and six cats featured on the new Texas Lottery® scratch ticket game, Cats vs. Dogs. The $2 scratch ticket is now available at Texas Lottery retailers and offers more than $9.1 million in total prizes and six top prizes of $30,000.

Booker Tee and the 11 other cats and dogs featured on the game were the top vote getters in the Texas Lottery’s Facebook photo contest held in November 2015.

“More than 1,700 dogs and cats were entered into the photo contest and nearly 25,000 votes were cast,” said Gary Grief, executive director of the Texas Lottery. “With the tremendous response to our photo contest, we expect this game to be a hit with our players.”

Woolman says that 3-year-old Booker has never met a stranger, that he adores little kids and puppies and enjoys long naps.

“We have had several dogs throughout our life and they each have brought something different to our family dynamics,” said Woolman. “We love Booker because he’s a clown, he makes us laugh! The fact that so many people supported him by voting each day really means a lot to us.”

Woolman says that companionship is the best thing about owning a dog or cat.

“There is just something reassuring about knowing that no matter what I did or didn’t get accomplished for the day, Booker is going to be right by my side, wagging his tail, happy to simply be laying next to me,” he said.
