• Sign your ticket.
• Prizes must be claimed within 180 days of drawing date for draw games and within 180 days from the end-of-game date for scratch-off games.
• Claim prizes of $599 or less at any licensed Texas Lottery® retailer.
• Ask retailer for Player Copy of the validation receipt as proof of prize amount.
• Ask retailer to return your non-winning tickets. Retailers are required to keep paid winning tickets.
• Claim prizes of $2.5 million or less at any Texas Lottery Claim Center or by mail.
• Claims mailing address is: Texas Lottery Commission, ATTN: Austin Claim Center, P.O. Box 16600, Austin, TX 78761-6600.
• The Texas Lottery Commission is not responsible for misdirected mail or tickets lost in the mail.
• Non-cash prizes, prizes over $2.5 million and prizes paid through an annuity must be claimed at the Texas Lottery Commission in Austin, as well as any grand/jackpot/Top Prize winning tickets for Lotto Texas®, Mega Millions®, Powerball® and MONOPOLY MILLIONAIRES’ CLUB™.

Playing the lottery is all about having fun! Add to the fun by doing a few simple things to claim your prize:

• Before traveling to Austin to claim a prize, call 800-375-6886 (800-37-LOTTO) to learn what documents are needed to process your claim.
• Do not mail second-chance drawing entries to the Texas Lottery or any claim center. Visit tulottery.org/luckzone to register and enter drawings.
• To avoid having your ticket disqualified for second-chance drawings, understand the game rules available on our website, or on the back of participating tickets.
• Report suspicious activities or concerns about lottery transactions by calling the Compliance Hotline at 800-37-LOTTO. Make written complaints via mail or on our website at tulottery.org.
The Texas Lottery has a message for its followers on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram: We appreciate you! And to show it, the agency runs various promotions on social media. In the past, promotions have been used to support the 10X Super Fast Cash and the Texas Lottery “Luck Zone” booth at the State Fair of Texas®.

For example, to promote the 10X Super Fast Cash scratch-off ticket, we held trivia contests on Facebook for the chance to win race and concert tickets. We also had in-person promotions at the State Fair that allowed attendees chances to win Texas Lottery tickets and merchandise. Follow us to be the first to find out about our future promotions!

Social media allows us to connect with our players in fun new ways through your tablets and other mobile devices. You can stay up to date on our latest games, enter promotions, and tell us what’s on your mind!

The Texas Lottery has generated well over $22 billion for the state of Texas since the first ticket was sold in 1992. Prior to 1997, the proceeds were allocated to the General Revenue Fund. Since 1997, Texas Lottery proceeds have been transferred to the Foundation School Fund to support public education in our state. The Texas Lottery has contributed more than $17 billion to the Foundation School Fund, and of that total, $1,201 million was contributed in fiscal year 2014. Other Texas Lottery funds such as unclaimed prizes revert back to the state for programs authorized by the Texas Legislature. Since fiscal year 2010, some Texas Lottery proceeds also benefit the Fund for Veterans’ Assistance.

Where the Money Goes:

- 62.5% Prizes Paid
- 27.5% Foundation School Fund
- 5.4% Retailer Commissions
- 4.2% Lottery Administration
- 0.4% Other State Programs (including unclaimed prizes)

Information reflects unaudited FY ’14 figures

*Percentage totals are rounded. $11.5 million was transferred to the Texas Veterans Commission.

The Texas Lottery has a message for its followers on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram: We appreciate you! And to show it, the agency runs various promotions on social media. In the past, promotions have been used to support the 10X Super Fast Cash and the Texas Lottery “Luck Zone” booth at the State Fair of Texas®.

For example, to promote the 10X Super Fast Cash scratch-off ticket, we held trivia contests on Facebook for the chance to win race and concert tickets. We also had in-person promotions at the State Fair that allowed attendees chances to win Texas Lottery tickets and merchandise. Follow us to be the first to find out about our future promotions!

Social media allows us to connect with our players in fun new ways through your tablets and other mobile devices. You can stay up to date on our latest games, enter promotions, and tell us what’s on your mind!

The Texas Lottery has generated well over $22 billion for the state of Texas since the first ticket was sold in 1992. Prior to 1997, the proceeds were allocated to the General Revenue Fund. Since 1997, Texas Lottery proceeds have been transferred to the Foundation School Fund to support public education in our state. The Texas Lottery has contributed more than $17 billion to the Foundation School Fund, and of that total, $1,201 million was contributed in fiscal year 2014. Other Texas Lottery funds such as unclaimed prizes revert back to the state for programs authorized by the Texas Legislature. Since fiscal year 2010, some Texas Lottery proceeds also benefit the Fund for Veterans’ Assistance.

Where the Money Goes:

- 62.5% Prizes Paid
- 27.5% Foundation School Fund
- 5.4% Retailer Commissions
- 4.2% Lottery Administration
- 0.4% Other State Programs (including unclaimed prizes)

Information reflects unaudited FY ’14 figures

*Percentage totals are rounded. $11.5 million was transferred to the Texas Veterans Commission.

The Texas Lottery has a message for its followers on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram: We appreciate you! And to show it, the agency runs various promotions on social media. In the past, promotions have been used to support the 10X Super Fast Cash and the Texas Lottery “Luck Zone” booth at the State Fair of Texas®.

For example, to promote the 10X Super Fast Cash scratch-off ticket, we held trivia contests on Facebook for the chance to win race and concert tickets. We also had in-person promotions at the State Fair that allowed attendees chances to win Texas Lottery tickets and merchandise. Follow us to be the first to find out about our future promotions!

Social media allows us to connect with our players in fun new ways through your tablets and other mobile devices. You can stay up to date on our latest games, enter promotions, and tell us what’s on your mind!

The Texas Lottery has generated well over $22 billion for the state of Texas since the first ticket was sold in 1992. Prior to 1997, the proceeds were allocated to the General Revenue Fund. Since 1997, Texas Lottery proceeds have been transferred to the Foundation School Fund to support public education in our state. The Texas Lottery has contributed more than $17 billion to the Foundation School Fund, and of that total, $1,201 million was contributed in fiscal year 2014. Other Texas Lottery funds such as unclaimed prizes revert back to the state for programs authorized by the Texas Legislature. Since fiscal year 2010, some Texas Lottery proceeds also benefit the Fund for Veterans’ Assistance.

Where the Money Goes:

- 62.5% Prizes Paid
- 27.5% Foundation School Fund
- 5.4% Retailer Commissions
- 4.2% Lottery Administration
- 0.4% Other State Programs (including unclaimed prizes)

Information reflects unaudited FY ’14 figures

*Percentage totals are rounded. $11.5 million was transferred to the Texas Veterans Commission.

The Texas Lottery has a message for its followers on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram: We appreciate you! And to show it, the agency runs various promotions on social media. In the past, promotions have been used to support the 10X Super Fast Cash and the Texas Lottery “Luck Zone” booth at the State Fair of Texas®.

For example, to promote the 10X Super Fast Cash scratch-off ticket, we held trivia contests on Facebook for the chance to win race and concert tickets. We also had in-person promotions at the State Fair that allowed attendees chances to win Texas Lottery tickets and merchandise. Follow us to be the first to find out about our future promotions!

Social media allows us to connect with our players in fun new ways through your tablets and other mobile devices. You can stay up to date on our latest games, enter promotions, and tell us what’s on your mind!

The Texas Lottery has generated well over $22 billion for the state of Texas since the first ticket was sold in 1992. Prior to 1997, the proceeds were allocated to the General Revenue Fund. Since 1997, Texas Lottery proceeds have been transferred to the Foundation School Fund to support public education in our state. The Texas Lottery has contributed more than $17 billion to the Foundation School Fund, and of that total, $1,201 million was contributed in fiscal year 2014. Other Texas Lottery funds such as unclaimed prizes revert back to the state for programs authorized by the Texas Legislature. Since fiscal year 2010, some Texas Lottery proceeds also benefit the Fund for Veterans’ Assistance.

Where the Money Goes:

- 62.5% Prizes Paid
- 27.5% Foundation School Fund
- 5.4% Retailer Commissions
- 4.2% Lottery Administration
- 0.4% Other State Programs (including unclaimed prizes)

Information reflects unaudited FY ’14 figures

*Percentage totals are rounded. $11.5 million was transferred to the Texas Veterans Commission.