TEXAS LOTTERY REMINDS PLAYERS TO GIFT RESPONSIBLY THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

(AUSTIN) – In partnership with the National Council on Problem Gambling (NCPG) and McGill University’s International Centre for Youth Gambling Problems and High-Risk Behaviors, the Texas Lottery is reminding players to gift responsibly this holiday season and not to purchase lottery tickets as gifts for children and adolescents.

“Our products are designed to be entertaining stocking stuffers or holiday office party gifts, but they are not intended for anyone under 18 years old,” said Gary Grief, executive director of the Texas Lottery. “We discourage underage play and are proud to once again join the National Council on Problem Gambling’s responsible gaming campaign.”

The Texas Lottery is a Silver Member of NCPG and encourages responsible gambling throughout the year. The PLAY RESPONSIBLY message is included on the Texas Lottery’s games, website and advertising. The holiday Gift Responsibly message will be featured on the Texas Lottery’s social media accounts and website and in the retailer newsletter and in-store electronic messaging.
