TEXAS LOTTERY RECOGNIZES PROBLEM GAMBLING AWARENESS MONTH

(AUSTIN) – The Texas Lottery is joining the National Council on Problem Gambling (NCPG) to recognize March as Problem Gambling Awareness Month. NCPG’s Have the Conversation campaign encourages lottery players to play responsibly.

“We want to remind Texas Lottery players that it only takes one ticket to win,” said Gary Grief, executive director of the Texas Lottery. “By joining the conversation we want to raise awareness of the prevention, treatment and recovery services available for those adversely affected by gambling.”

The Texas Lottery is a Silver Member of NCPG and encourages responsible gambling throughout the year. The PLAY RESPONSIBLY message is included on the Texas Lottery’s games and advertising. The Texas Lottery provides problem gambling awareness training for retailers and employees and makes resource information available to players and retailers through the dedicated PLAY RESPONSIBLY page on its website. Responsible gaming messages are also featured in employee communications and on the Texas Lottery’s official social media accounts. The Have the Conversation message will be featured on the Texas Lottery’s social media accounts, website and in-store electronic messaging and in the retailer newsletter.

The Texas Lottery was recently awarded Level 3 certification by the World Lottery Association (WLA) for its responsible gaming initiatives.

To get help for a gambling problem for you or a loved one, call 1-800-522-4700. The call is free and confidential. For more information about problem gambling and how to have the conversation, visit www.ncpgambling.org/pgam.
