FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. How can my employees get lottery training?

A. The lottery now offers easy access to online training through Lottery Learning Link (LLL). Users of Lottery Services Portal (LSP) may log in from LSP and any retailer can access LLL from the Retailer Services page at txlottery.org. Also, licensed Texas Lottery® retailers and their employees may attend any of the regularly scheduled classroom training sessions at the various IGT district sales offices. Talk to your lottery sales rep (LSR) about your training needs.

Q. Does LLL replace required classroom training?

A. No. Newly licensed retailers need to attend a classroom training session before they begin selling lottery tickets. LLL provides supplemental access to a variety of helpful exercises and information on key areas of lottery business after classroom training is completed. LLL is helpful for employees who need overall training or just easy access to a specific topic such as how to change paper, cancel a Pick 3™ ticket or produce a Multi-Draw ticket.

Q. Do I have to take LLL courses in the order listed?

A. No. Although LLL is designed to build on knowledge from previous lessons and courses, users can easily skip around topics and retake lessons in any order.

Q. Can users track progress and completion of their LLL courses?

A. Yes. LLL users and their account administrator have access to reports that show completion rates for individual courses. Also, a certificate of completion can be printed for your records.
